Dear Seniors:

You are completing your high school career. These four years of your life have held out great promise. However, as you graduate only you can answer the question: What Has Serra Meant for Me?

Serra is a living reality with persons, spirit, and goals. You have developed in this atmosphere, but what have you become? To each one the experience has been different. Certainly Serra has provided an excellent academic program for you, which is essential to your education. There has also been a full program of activities and sports that you can long remember. There has been that close association with fellow students and faculty. These factors set the atmosphere, but within this experience your development has been more unique. Maybe it was some lesson, some association, some consideration, some enthusiasm that has helped you to develop as a person. Reflect on this question: What Has Serra Meant For Me?

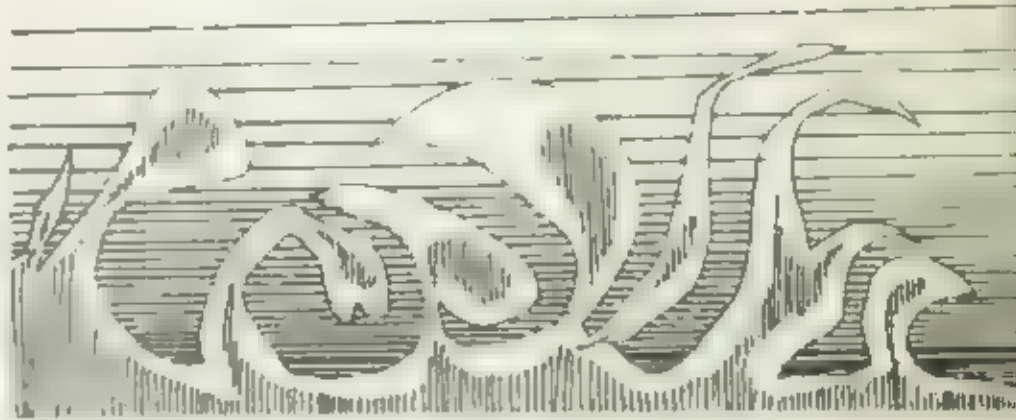

We hope that amid all the activities and the lessons, you have come to see more clearly a vision of the world. A world in which God exists. A world in which we are assisted by the Church to relate to God and our fellow man. A world in which we see a Church assisting man to be what God had intended him to be. A world in which we can work to improve it by constructive, rational, and lawful means. A world in which we can add meaning to life amid affluence. It is a large vision but one that will provide purpose and direction to our lives.

Congratulations on your graduation. May God and Mary continue to guide you. May this EL PADRE be a visual remembrance of the reality of Serra. As men of Serra we hope that with this vision you can go forward in life fulfilling our motto, the words of Christ, "Be You Witnesses For Me."

Integrity Lies In The Class Of '69

P. J. Kennedy (Division President), Rich Arias

It has finally come time for the Class of '69 to leave Serra. In its four years here it has compiled a record of outstanding achievements that will be hard to equal in the future. Its athletic teams have consistently proven themselves the best in the area. Its scholars have won numerous awards for their intellectual endeavors. This class has also distinguished itself in the area of community affairs. But even those who are neither scholars nor athletes have contributed to the overall quality of this graduating class.

First on the list of school activities in the new year was the initiation of the incoming Freshmen. Placed in the second week of school to give the Freshmen time to adjust, this week always starts the year off with a boost of enthusiasm.

The week, sparked with such exciting days as the slave auction on Monday, Car Wash Day, and Twinky Day, was successfully highlighted by the Initiation Court and Frosh Welcome Dance both on Friday.

Initiation Court

As a fitting close to a successful week of initiating the newly-arrived Freshmen, a court of initiation was held on the football field. Jerry Ruzicka presided over this court of judgment and, under his direction, those Freshmen convicted of crimes were submitted to fitting punishment.

At the end of the assembly, judgment was passed, and, in the light of true Serra justice, the Freshmen were found worthy of being Serra Cavaliers and would be able to stay on campus. With high spirits and good feelings everyone prepared for the Frosh Welcome Dance which completed a successful Initiation Week.

Expression Of Ideas

STUDENT COUNCIL

Serra has a reputation for having one of the best student governments of all the Marianist run schools. Anyone observing this year's STUDENT COUNCIL would have to admit that the tradition is being upheld. Winner of the student government award for three years straight, Serra has a good chance of winning again with the 1969 Student Council. With representatives from every homeroom, plus the Executive Board presiding, the council worked hard every Tuesday of the school year to provide a clear set of standards for the running of the school. A large question this year was the dress code. As in all democratic structures, debate was held on the subject and the new provisions were then voted on. The result was a new, more up to date approach to dress, for which the Council can take credit.

Under the able guidance of Brother John Haster and Mr. LeRoy Cox, this body of students exemplified able self government in action.

Moves The Wheels

CLUB COUNCIL

In order to give the students an even greater say in school life, the CLUB COUNCIL was organized three years ago. Since that time it has consistently shown itself to be an efficient and useful body for governing student affairs. Made up of the presidents or representatives of all Serra's clubs, CLUB COUNCIL helped to organize several activities this year, including Christmas Show and Homecoming Activities. It was also almost entirely responsible for this year's retreat. President Dana Gioia coordinated the functions of all clubs on campus and represented the clubs in Student Council.

Guides Us All

BOB BELLMORE: STUDENT BODY PRESIDENT

As Student Body President, Bob Bellmore successfully guided Serra's student government through a long, eventful year. Besides playing a major role in the governing of student activities, Bob was also Serra's public relations man. Representing Serra, he spoke at surrounding grade schools and civic events and traveled throughout the area.

DARYLL BURNETT STUDENT BODY VICE-PRESIDENT

The Vice-President's traditional job is to see that the students have an interesting and enjoyable schedule of races and assemblies. V. P. Darryll spent much time during this year to make this possible. The Student Body was pleasantly surprised with assemblies ranging from a visiting speaker, supposedly from Russia to the ever-popular John Goddard.

BROTHER HASTER AND MR. COX STUDENT ACTIVITIES DIRECTORS

Anything that was accomplished during this past year is directly attributable to these two men. Without their link to the Administration and their generous assistance, the Executive Board would have been helpless. It is a special kind of dedication that makes a man take time off from his private life to assist in the running of student affairs. It is for this reason that these men deserve a special vote of thanks.

RANDY HAMMON, STUDENT BODY CHIEF JUSTICE

One of the most difficult jobs at Serra is managing and ordering the student body. It has been the job of Randy Hammon, elected Student Body Chief Justice, to install an efficient Student Center, capable of enforcing the code and to maintain a just Student Court to try and sentence the delinquents. It is Randy's credit that these duties have been so faithfully executed.

FRANK DZIDA STUDENT BODY TREASURER

In one of the most important posts at Serra, Frank Dzida took charge of what is probably the essential aspect of running a school, the study of money. Besides keeping an accurate record of all incoming and outgoing money used by the Student Council, Frank kept the Students informed of the School's income. He was also responsible for the regular schedule of intramural sports.

MICHAEL RAMIREZ STUDENT BODY SECRETARY

Anything under the heading of publicity fell into the hands of Junior Mike Ramirez, Student Body Secretary. His responsibilities were two-fold. First, it was his job to see that all of the new papers and surrounding stories were informed of what Serra was doing. Secondly, by means of the Liberator, he was obliged to keep the student informed of these same matters.

DANA GIOIA INTER-CLUB COUNCIL PRESIDENT

Although thwarted in his bid for Student Body President, Dana Gioia became a vital part of Student Government in his post as President of Inter-Club Council. Through his leadership and imagination, the clubs at Serra became something more than a thing to do after school. Dana brought the club presidents into a position to accomplish more than usual, as was seen by the president's role in the student retreat.

BILL WAIS AND LARRY HOLLIS STUDENT COURT BAILIFF AND CLERK

To administer justice fairly in Serra's Student Court, it was the duty of these men to keep financial and clerical records of the court proceedings. Bill, as Clerk, was responsible for setting the schedule of cases and reporting to the Student Body, the activities of the court. Larry, as Bailiff, had the duty of collecting the fines of those who were convicted. As a team, these two ably handled the paper work of the court for the whole school year.

STUDENT CONTROL

In an effort to let the students take care of discipline problems out side of the classroom on their own, Student Control has become a vital part of Serra Life. A small but determined group of students, with the backing of the faculty saw to it that those students who violated the various school codes were appropriately punished. Outside of their duties as law enforcers, the STUDENT CONTROL also acted as ushers at the rallies and assemblies this year.

Of Law and Order

STUDENT COURT

It became the duty of Randy Hammon, elected Chief Justice to see that justice was done to those accused of violating school codes. With the assistance of Ed King, Clark Green, and Jeff Milligan in their posts as Associate Justices the Court was able to accommodate the tremendous number of cases to be heard. He was further assisted in his work by his Bailiff and Clerk, Barry Hollis and B. I. Wais who took over the non-judicial side of Court operation. And so it was that, under the Courts' authority, the innocent were set free and the guilty were punished according to the magnitude of their crime

CSF

The CSF under the leadership of President Paul Lucero and Moderator Mr. Charles Donovan, had an especially busy time this year. Beginning in the first semester, the CSF saw a large increase in the number of active members. With such a large number of people to choose from, the Scholarquiz team was picked. After a series of tough matches with local schools Serra came out on top again for the second year in a row. It was then the CSF's job to sponsor the Grade School Bowl. For this, students from almost all local grammar schools competed. Finally, the club took time for a field trip to important historical sites in the area.

RIFLE CLUB

The RIFLE CLUB, the newest club on campus, amazed everyone with its outstanding membership drive. No other club has ever had more students attend its first meeting. This club offers a chance to develop skills of marksmanship as well as gun safety. Each week, members of the club, under the direction of Mr. LeRoy Cox and President Winston Ross, traveled off campus to receive instruction from certified National Rifle Association teachers. Eventually, all members of the club passed the N.R.A. test and were eligible to go on the hunting trips that the Rifle Club took later in the year.

FRENCH CLUB

This year, as always the FRENCH CLUB turned its attention to the outside world. Offering the student a wide variety of activities, from films of France shown at school to out-of-town trips, the club this year claimed one of the largest memberships ever. After an exciting membership drive, the club visited an exhibition of sculpture by the Frenchman, Jean Arp, at UCLA. Later in the year, the club visited Mon Arc Restaurant for a taste of authentic French Cooking. Mr. Donovan and President Craig Van Allen saw to it that French culture was preserved at every

Service is the Watchword

Community service has always been an important facet of Serra life. In past years the KEY CLUB has been responsible for organizing most of this schools community functions. This school year, the Key Club took many steps to provide service to all in need. With the El Camino Kiwanis sponsoring them, these Serra students worked diligently to help out in whatever way possible for both Serra social events and civic projects. They were led throughout the year by Mr. LeRoy Cox and Rich Arias.

CHESS CLUB

Not all sports are athletic, nor are all intellectual pursuits purely mental. Chess, one of the oldest games of all, employs the mind in a way that borders on gymnastics. This year, the CHESS CLUB, long dormant was revived so that students might have a chance to learn and play this game. Under President Dan Hatton's able hands the Chess Club grew in importance and added many new members to its roster.

PHOTO CLUB

Although rarely in the limelight, the PHOTO CLUB is one of the most important and useful activities at Serra. Under the guidance of Bro. George Masa and President James Crowell, many Serra men were given the opportunity to learn the tricks of professional photography and enjoy themselves at the same time. Most of the work for the school yearbook and newspaper was accomplished by novices working under these two men. It is no wonder then that the PHOTO CLUB holds a unique place in Serra life.

SODALITY

By far one of the most active clubs on campus is the Sodality. This year's sodalists lived up to the club's reputation. Under the direction of Senior Sodality President Irwin Hum, the club organized and took care of the Canned Food Drive and, along with Saint Mary's Academy, personally saw to it that all the canned food reached its destination of Rancho Nazareth, an orphanage in Tecate, Mexico. While delivering the food, the members stayed around for the day and did a lot of helpful manual labor at the mission. Of all the clubs at Serra, the Sodality has the most generous rewards for those members who work hard—a contented sense of well-being.

MYSTICAL CULT OF CLIO

This year's History Club, or Mystical Cult of Clio, turned its attention to the outside world. President James Garcia collaborated with Darryl Burnett, the Student Body Vice President, to put on the Election Assembly. At this, representatives of both major political parties spoke on behalf of their candidates. The Cult also sponsored a mock election in which the students were able to voice their choice for President of the United States and other major political offices. Through the efforts of both the club President and Moderator—Mr. Durant—the club was successful in its attempts to bring the events of the outside world closer to the individual student.

MOUNTAINEERING CLUB

Mountaineering is one of the few clubs at Serra whose activities take place off campus. For the last four years, the club has visited a variety of parks and forests around California. Most of the novices are quick to learn the skills needed to go on these trips. This year the Moderator, Brother George Masa, and club president Tom Higley have led the experienced and inexperienced on a series of expeditions to local hiking areas. Although this club adds little to the intellectual growth of the student, it is nonetheless one of the most popular and successful clubs on campus.

GOLF CLUB

Moderator Mr. Thomas and President Craig Reiche headed the popular Golf Club this year. Under their expert guidance, the club sponsored a number of tournaments at local courses and invariably came out on top. At these competitions, the members had a chance to show their golf playing ability and improve themselves at the same time. Although the club did not appeal to all students, the membership was surprisingly large. With such interest, the club can look forward to a bright future.

LIBRARY STAFF

If dedication to a cause is a special virtue, then the library staff deserves a special salute for their work in spreading knowledge throughout the school. Their work and planning make possible the efficient running of the school library on a full-time schedule. While helping the student body, however, they help themselves by learning the skills of a good librarian. It is hard to imagine what situation most of the student body would be in were it not for the hard work of these dedicated individuals.

EL PADRE STAFF

It is hard to estimate the amount of time and effort that has gone into the production of this year's El Padre. Since last June, the staff has worked diligently to make this the finest yearbook in Serra's history. But this has been more than a coldly efficient endeavor. The people involved have worked to one end; a coherent piece of art, executed with inspiration and warmth. And if they have succeeded, it is because of the tremendous dedication that each one possessed for that ideal.

BAND

Under the baton of Mr. Limina, the Serra High Cavalier Band pushed ahead in becoming the finest high school band in the area. Beginning this year with the organization of a finely drilled marching unit, the band brought recognition and praise to all involved. Once football season had ended, the band concentrated on building a concert repertoire for its various local appearances. These appearances were an increase over last year's as the band traveled around performing in several holiday parades. Finally, the band travelled to music competitions around Los Angeles where it made a name for itself as a top-rate ensemble.

BOOSTER CLUB

The fathers were by no means idle this year. They helped with the supervision and maintenance of the school, organized and served at the various social events, and were always available to the brothers for valuable advice and assistance. But by far their most important contribution was the organization, maintenance and successful outcome of the fiesta. Here the dads served in booths, helped with ideas and construction and saw to it that the money was wisely used. Besides what each individual student owes his father for what he has done at home, each student should thank the father's club collectively for their fine work.

Serra Activities

MOTHER'S CLUB

Once again, the mothers of Serra students displayed their un-failing dedication and industriousness by their activities this year. Under president Grace Conger and an efficient board, the mothers put on another successful fashion show. Highlighted by Serra students and teenage girls exhibiting fashionable outfits, the fashion show had an outstanding turnout of mothers and their daughters and friends. The mothers didn't stop here, however. They were there all year, serving at social events, talking to teachers and, especially, playing a major part in the annual fiesta.

FASHION SHOW

The highlight of the Mother's Club year's service was the fashion show. This yearly event was a grand success with teenage models and new fashions. Serra seniors, their sisters and their mothers all pitched in to make the fashion show an outstanding success. It is certainly a great tribute to the mothers to be able to put on such a great fashion show.

CHRISTMAS SHOW

As always, the Christmas Show was the entertainment highlight of the year. Sparked with the humor of emcee Gene Cooper, the show was a collage of all facets of student talent. Its varied offering of folksinging, humor, hard rock and classics provided a few hours of enjoyment before the long Christmas Holidays. Behind all of it, however, was hours of careful planning, practice and auditions. The students who worked on the show itself and those who participated in it proved themselves to be more than capable to put on an enjoyable performance. Happily, student reception was enough payment for the hard work of those involved.

Football

A Special Dedication

Coach Pete Lopez began his campaign at Serra in 1966. The job laid upon his shoulders was an immense one, at the time. He was assigned to improve the Cavaliers football squad from its previous spot at the bottom of the league.

The end result of three years of arduous work and nights after practice on the part of the coaching staff resulted in a tremendous season. Entering a new league, Serra presented its team as a dominating factor, thanks to the work of Coach Pete Lopez. The team secured second place with a 6-1-2 record.

Since Coach Pete Lopez has devoted an enormous amount of time and work, it is only fitting that this Sports section be dedicated to him in appreciation for his fine work and a job well done.

Coach Lopez took every game with a special kind of importance.

The first game of the season the Cavaliers tied Pius in a hard-fought contest. Outstanding performances were put in by Corky Lopez and Leon Beauchman.

SERRA 12 ST. ANTHONY 0

The clash with an old rival showed the Cavaliers superior. With Corky Lopez connecting for four of nine passes and Vic Tremblay, Tim Boyer, and Leon Beauchman leading the way on the ground, Serra trampled St. Anthony by accumulating 12 points to their nothing.

SERRA 28 MURPHY 7

With Steve Handa pulling in touchdown passes from Corky Lopez, with Vic Tremblay running for two, and Tim Boyer for another, Serra went on to destroy Daniel Murphy 28-7 with all four extra points executed by Kerry Eskeli.

SERRA 35 ST. MONICA 13

This contest was highlighted by a stunning 30-yard run by Steve Handa for a touchdown. On the defensive side, Larry Bartisavich intercepted a pass and galloped for his only touchdown in his Serra career. Serra went on to win 35-13.

SERRA 20 ST. BERNARD'S 7

After three straight years of defeat at the hands of the Vikings, Serra showed them who was boss by handing St. Bernard's a 20 to 7 defeat. With Jerry Ruzicka and Steve Morrissey leading the defense along with the usual offensive stars, Serra once again proved their superiority on the gridiron.

SERRA 19 BISHOP MONTGOMERY 28

Outstanding plays by Steve Handa and a host of others were not sufficient to prevent the defeat dealt us by Bishop. Even with great determination and skill Serra went down in defeat 19-28.

SERRA 32 FERMIN LAUSEN 7

Sparked by the intense Cavalier spirit of homecoming week the entire team turned in a magnificent 32 to 7 victory to give Serra its first homecoming victory in five years.

SERRA 19 MT. CARMEL 12

The old rival fell with hardly any trouble at all. The great plays by Vic Tremblay, Larry Lopez, and Gil Aguilar insured us a victory.

SERRA 14 CRESPI 14

The Crespi game was a hard-fought contest with both sides giving little and gaining as much. Serra worked as hard as they ever had but the end result furnished only a tie and a second place position in the league.

Homecoming

With Senior Rich Arias in charge of the Homecoming committee and with the Juniors in charge of creating spirit during Homecoming week it resulted in a great success. The Juniors were responsible for picking the theme and Rich Arias controlled the committee who had the difficult task of picking the homecoming queen. All in all, the week was an entire success thanks to the help of all involved

The J.V.'s showed excellent skill both in their offense and defense. Last year's Catholic League Freshman champs, they played to an 8-1-0 finish, securing second place. With their great talent, they will add refinements to the Varsity next year for an even better team.

The Serra Freshmen spear-headed their attack with excessive school spirit and confidence. By always striving and persevering for the desired ends, they portrayed the true Cavalier image. After some needed refinements, they too will turn into a fine ball club.

Cross Country -T. Vaent, T. Kenney, Donaldson, T. Hgley, R. Martin, J. M. Gaha, C. Green, D. Crowder, S. Meagher

Cross Country, the forgotten sport, was headed again this year by Bro. George Masa. Although this year's record doesn't show much, the team worked hard day after day for an all-out effort at every meet.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

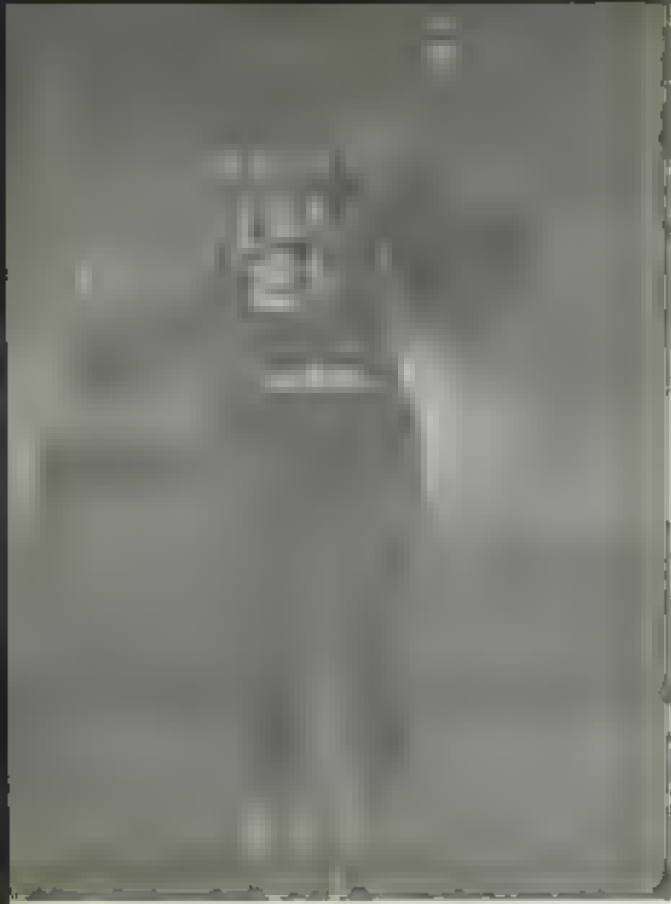

The basketball team, with the fine coaching of Jim Leslie, enjoyed a tremendous season. The Serra High varsity broke some, if not all, of Serra's previous records. They proved to be our greatest team since Serra entered basketball competition.

Led by such talents as Leon Beauchman, Larry Miller and Daryl Burnett, Serra posted ten wins and two defeats to capture second place in the Camino Real League and a C.I.F. berth.

J.V. BASKETBALL

This new formation is just what the team needed to help them win the new league with the J.V. Basketball team. The J.V. team was a team of great and powerful players, and they were probably the best team in the league. We are certain that they will be a dominant force in future Serra years since they have the skill and the guidance to supplement the loss of talent in next year's Varsity squad.

FROSH BASKETBALL

The Freshman Basketball team entered the season with anxiety, it was a good place and learning on the court. With the advice of the year from their class Vice-Kate, they were already started on the court to get them. With continued good coaching the team had become a dynamic group in their basketball future.

VARSITY BASEBALL

The Serra High Cavaliers Varsity Baseball team, with exceptional coaching from coach Tony Guggiana, has high hopes for a possible Camino Real League title. The team went undefeated for the entire pre-season play and has suffered only two league defeats. With half the season left, Serra has an extremely good chance of capturing first place by going undefeated in the remainder of the season.

J.V. BASEBALL

The Junior Varsity Baseball team has the pitching and the bats to evolve into an outstanding team. A well balanced team should have a good pitching staff, good hitters, and speed on the bases. They have the ability to develop all of these and show their effect on the future Serra Varsity team.

VARSITY TRACK

Led by the experienced coaching of Coach Ernie Simon and Coach Pete Lopez, the Serra High track squad conditioned itself into a prominent structure. The outstanding track participant was Kerry Eskeli, who broke Serra's shot-put record and set it again and again. The team on a whole was extremely disciplined and performed better than in previous years.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

With the yearbook finally completed, it is time to thank those people who have, in their own way, contributed to making the 1969 EL PADRE a success. There is always a great amount of effort put into the production of any work of quality. This year's annual has been no exception. The time and patience that went into its making was great, but the results are rewarding. We hope that the '69 EL PADRE will serve as an enjoyable souvenir of the year at Serra for those who have taught and studied here.

We would like to thank:

Mr. Doug Reiss, our moderator, for his invaluable guidance and advice in the production of a successful yearbook . . .

Al Moreno, who took care of the financial side of this year's book with skill, wit and patience, and without whose aid the '69 EL PADRE would have been impossible

Mr. Jack Cannicott, our publisher, who took the time to make sure that the level of excellence was maintained throughout the book .

Alfred and Fabris Studio for their constant aid in meeting deadlines with photographic work of the highest quality . .

Rick Ambrosi, staff photographer, who saw to it that the staff and editors had a fine set of pictures to work with in assembling their sections and who worked tirelessly in the darkroom to assure fine prints throughout the whole book . . .

The Advertisers for their great cooperation in making this book financially feasible . . .

The Faculty and Administration for their patience and understanding throughout the year and for their aid to all the editors . .

The Staff and Editors themselves for their work and cooperation in making this the finest yearbook in Serra history . . .

And special thanks to Colleen for being herself and keeping us sane.
